

J-1 Student Intern Evaluation

In accordance with the Department of State regulations, the supervisor is required to evaluate each student intern. All required evaluations must be completed prior to the conclusion of the student internship program, and both the student intern and their supervisor must sign the form. The hosting department must retain student intern evaluations (electronic or hard copy) for a period of at least three years following the completion of each internship program. A copy of the evaluation must be sent to j1scholars@tamu.edu.

The evaluation form must be completed before the student intern leaves the U.S.
